

Use the Chipper to let a student talk about his or her show and tell item. You can send the device home with a child who is non-verbal to have a sibling or parent record a message about the child's show and tell item. When the student comes back to class the next day, he or she can press the Chipper to tell the class about the item.