

For this application, we used a Battery Interrupter and adapted the heart light. We plugged a Male-Male connector into the Battery Interrupter and Relay jack of the Sequencer. A Pal Pad is placed in an Overlay Pocket on the inside of the back cover and is plugged into the Sequencer. When the Sequencer plays a message, a light activates for the length of the message. This is a great literacy and cause-and-effect application!