

In this application, a Randomizer was used to replace cards in the game of SORRY. Messages representing the directions on the cards were recorded into the Randomizer. Be creative when recording your messages...use appropriate vocal tone and inflection! Messages are activated by pressing the top of the Randomizer. An external switch can be added to accommodate access needs of the user. The VoicePal Levels also has a random messaging mode.